Brief event description:

- Western Fortunes is a side-pot; therefore, the rules of the host event will determine any conflicts.
- Take entries for Western Fortunes horses & verify registration papers. Registered names must be used on entry forms, in event programs & in the result's database. "WF Sidepot Entry" forms can be downloaded, printed or linked to the event producers' website from the WF website. WF incentive payouts are processed by the WF office.
- Add a WF column to entry forms & result's database to track WF offspring entered. Announce WF horses during competition.
- WF Sidepot Entry forms, copies of breed registration & results to be forwarded to WF office 14 days after the event has ended. Western Fortunes Inc. PO Box 3432 Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta Canada T8L 2T4
- Notify WF on category winners ASAP. Allow winners to get their pictures beside the WF banner & forward to WF ASAP. Pictures should only be taken when the arena is not in use or at the same time as the event winners are having pictures done.
- Display a Western Fortunes banner inside the arena, either to the left or right side of the alley entrance. To be supplied by WF.
- Use WF barrel covers whenever possible. Event producer & event sponsors barrel covers take priority. To be supplied by WF.
- Store WF banners & barrel covers for future use at repeat events. Email: westernfortunes@gmail.com
- Keep WF updated on event changes, including date changes or cancellations. Email: westernfortunes@gmail.com
- WF combines both the Open & Youth groups in their payout provided both groups are run on the same barrel markers. Please notify WF before the start of the competition if groups are run on different markers.

We ask that you treat all WF competitors with respect & answer any questions that may arise during competition with regards to the event producer's printed material. The WF office will be available to answer all other questions. www.westernfortunes.com
